

Interview Questions for Kids<sup>1</sup>

An authentic example of the gospel of Jesus Christ in my life will be the greatest and most powerful testimony of God that my child will ever see. A way of measuring the effectiveness of my dynamic life is to interview my child and/or children regarding my testimony. Here are some sample questions:

1. What is it that your dad is most deeply committed to?
2. What is it that your mother is most deeply committed to?
3. What do you observe as you study your dad?
4. What do you observe as you study your mother?
5. What difference does the gospel make in your dad?
6. What difference does the gospel make in your mother?
7. What is it that your dad is most passionate about?
8. What is it that your mother is most passionate about?

Are your children observing the inescapable, undeniable, transforming, effect of the gospel in your life?
